

Donna May Geronimo

August 3, 1937 - December 7, 2019

Donna May Geronimo, 82, of Apple Creek, died Saturday, December 7, 2019 following a short illness.

Donna was born to Marcella (Hildebrandt) Wolf and Arthur Wolf.

She was a Wellington High School alumna and moved several times in her life before settling in Apple Creek.

She worked as a Kelly girl for many years doing secretarial work, at CNB Bank in customer service, and most recently at Lehman's hardware in Kidron.

Donna was preceded in death by her parents; a sister, Beverly; a brother, William; and her second husband, Tony.

She is survived by her children, Cheryl (Michael) Gayle of Togo, West Africa, Denise (Neil) Bousman of Muncie, IN, and Charlene (Adam) Leimeister of Apple Creek. She leaves behind ten grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

She was a member of Orville Christian Church.

Family graveside services will be held at the Foxfield Preserve. There will be no public services. Spidell funeral Home in Mount Eaton is handling the arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to the OCC Beyond Campaign, ABWE (Gayle or Wolford families).

Donna's pride and joy was her family, especially her great grandchildren who called her GiGi.

Because of her faith in Jesus, her passing was peaceful and joyful. Her last words to all of her loved ones was, "It's not goodbye, it's see you later. I love you."

Comments

“ I always admired Donna. Her faith didn't waiver even through adversity. I loved her sense of humor. I'll certainly miss her this side of heaven, but one day I hope to take a long walk with her and get to know her even better! My condolences to the family, and especially to all the grandchildren and great grandchildren who loved her so dearly.

Nancy Menotti - December 09, 2019 at 07:18 PM

“ I will miss seeing Donna at church but I know heaven is rejoicing!!

Kim Hignight - December 09, 2019 at 04:21 PM